

CDU 205R

Digital Sources Player
with Recorder

CDU 205R is a compact module with built-in CD player, MP3, USB, SD Card; with this device, you can play from various sources and send the music to an audio system. It also supports recording function on USB and SD card, total control of the functions using the keyboard.

Video Projector

Projectors and motorized screens for every need, from small rooms to the largest theater. Professional equipment suitable for any use, in any size for fixed and mobile installations. Brackets for ceiling or wall mounted with anti-theft systems and vandal-resistant.

eTour

Tour guide system

Professional audio transmission system; the system, composed of transmitter and receivers, allows you to distribute an audio signal from a transmitter equipped with a lavalier microphone (tie) to multiple receivers with headsets. Radios have 56 PLL channels available to form groups with different possibilities to distinguish them buying radio in a different color.

The images are purely illustrative and the details can be changed without any warning